Innledning

Det er alltid like spennende, like morsomt og inspirerende å sette sammen en auksjon i Oslo Myntgalleris regi. Innen hvilke numismatiske avdelinger kan vi presentere det mest spennende utvalget, skal store kjente samlinger splittes og friste nye samlere? Vil vi få materiale som får selv de mest kresne samlere til å skjønne at her må man møte opp? Denne gang har vi som vanlig satt av to dager til auksjonen, 8. og 9. mai, og håpet er at vi kan samles på Grand Hotel i hovedstaden disse dagene. Både Rococo salen og Speilsalen og hele toppetasjen på hotellet har vi sikret oss. Skulle corona-pandemien gjøre det umulig å benytte disse fasilitetene vil auksjonen gå som forrige gang, som en ren nettauksjon. Det ble en suksess, og selv om vi mister den sosiale møteplassen, blir auksjonen like spennende.

La oss denne gang starte vår innledende oversikt med seddelavdelingen. Etter det jeg vet må dette være den beste seddelauksjonen som er arrangert i Norge siden 1988. Den inneholder blant annet en betydelig samling som er bygget opp gjennom flere tiår helt frem til i dag som skal under hammeren, ca. 150 objekter, og det er sedler fra kroneperioden fra 1877 og fremover som er i hovedfokus. Det vil være fristende å trekke frem objekt etter objekt her, men la oss i hvert fall sette søkelyset på tre av dem.

500-kronen fra 1879 er det pr. i dag eneste tilgjengelige eksemplaret av denne seddelen. Det er totalt 3 kjente, 2 sitter fast i en samling, dette er altså den eneste muligheten du har til å sikre deg denne seddelen til samlingen din. Vi ser en sannsynlig proveniens tilbake til en auksjon i København i 1899, men vet ikke noe mer om den før vi kommer frem til 1970-tallet. Utropet er satt til NOK 600 000. Om mulig enda sjeldnere er 1000-kronen fra 1892. Dette er det eneste kjente eksemplaret. Også her finner vi en mulig proveniens til auksjonen i 1899, men første gang vi med sikkerhet har registrert den er i 1988. Dette unike eksemplaret har et utrop på NOK 750 000.

Det tredje eksemplet vi vil trekke frem fra denne uhyre spennende kroneseddel-avdelingen er samlingen av Londonsedler signert Nørve. Disse sedlene ble jo laget til bruk for en eventuell alliert invasjon i Norge, men den fant som kjent ikke sted. Nesten alle sedlene ble destruert, men sedlene med de laveste serienumrene og signert av Nørve ble beholdt av familien etter krigen. Serien består av 6 sedler, og denne serien, med nummer 000006, har aldri tidligere vært på auksjon. Totalt er det kjent under 10 komplette serier i privat eie, så her gjelder det å kjenne sin besøkelsestid.

Det er fristende å hoppe fra seddelavdelingen langt tilbake i historien, helt til samlingen av antikke mynter vi kan tilby denne gang. Fra en norsk stiftelse har vi fått innlevert en svært spennende avdeling greske sølvmynter i gode kvaliteter, i tillegg til romerske aureii – mynter som forteller oss om en del av historien som tydeligvis frister flere og flere norske samlere inn på området. Bevisstheten om hva historien forteller oss gjennom myntpregingene i denne uhyre spennende og omvekslende perioden i verdenshistorien fenger mange, og det er gledelig å kunne konstatere at dette er den nest største avdelingen antikke mynter vi noen gang har kunnet presentere i Oslo Myntgalleris historie. Samlet utrop her er ca. 2 millioner norske kroner.

Går vi videre frem i historien, vil jeg også trekke frem en veldig fin avdeling med norske middelaldermynter fra Magnus Lagabøte frem til reformasjonen. Her er mynter med like spennende historier som antikkens, og jeg vet at samlerne av numismatiske objekter fra denne perioden i norsk historie vil glede seg over både kvalitet og sjeldenhet. Og går vi frem til specietiden kan vi, i tillegg til de utsøkte eksemplarene fra Ragnar Kyllos samling som presenteres i en egen katalog, bl.a. glede oss over en utsøkt specie fra 1672 i kvalitet 01. Den stammer opprinnelig fra den kjente samlingen til Gerhard Wohrm. Avdelingen med kronemynt i topp kvaliteter fra Oscar II vil garantert være fristende for mange. Et godt eksempel på det er den sjeldne 2-kronen fra 1887 i 0/01-kvaltet som vi roper ut for NOK 50 000.

Når du blar gjennom denne katalogen, sammen med katalogen til Ragnar Kyllo, skjønner du sikkert hvilken spennende tid vi har hatt siden forrige auksjon i Oslo Myntgalleris regi. Vi starter med blanke ark, og i løpet av noen måneder er vi så heldige at vi igjen skjønner at vi vil komme til å friste samlere både her hjemme og ute. Vi krysser fingre for at vi kan sees de to dagene i Oslo, men en ting er sikkert – pandemi eller ikke – auksjon blir det! Med et totalt utrop på ca. 13 millioner kroner blir dette en ny mulighet til å finne nettopp det objektet du vil ha i samlingen din.

Vi ønsker velkommen, enten det blir på Grand eller på nettet!

AUKSJONSBETINGELSER

1. Auksjonen er offentlig og frivillig. Hvis ikke annet er opplyst vil det være flere innleverere til auksjonen.
2. Auksjonens objekter selges i den tilstand som de er beskrevet og fremvist før auksjonsstart. Kjøperne har selv anledning til å besiktige objektene før auksjonen og eventuelle reklamasjoner etter klubbeslag vil derfor ikke bli akseptert. Auksjonærens ansvar for de som har inngitt forhåndsbud eller byr pr.telefon er begrenset på samme måte.
3. Auksjonæren vil utvise aktsomhet ved beskrivelsen av alle objekter. Ethvert objekt ansees for ekte og autentisk hvis det ikke er gitt uttrykk for noe annet.
4. Ethvert bud som blir avgitt er bindende. Budgivere må være myndige, 18 år.
5. Forhåndsbud til auksjonen må være skriflig og være mottatt av auksjonæren i god tid før auksjonen begynner for å komme i betraktning. Forespørsel om budgivning på telefon aksepteres på objekter med minimumsutrop 2000 NOK og må bli mottatt senest siste arbeidsdag før auksjonsstart.
6. Alle auksjonsoppdrag behandles omsorgsfullt, dog er auksjonæren ikke ansvarlig for mulige feil eller misforståelser i kjøpsoppdraget.
7. Auksjonæren kan alene avvise bud fra kjøpere som er ukjente for auksjonæren og/eller ikke har avgitt referanser til andre kjente personer. Utenlandske kunder og live bidding brukere må registrere seg senest 24 timer før auksjonen begynner.
8. Auksjonæren kan alene avgjøre om personer får delta i auksjonen. Videre kan han alene avvise bud, trekke tilbake, omgruppere eller dele objekter. Ved uenighet kan han alene utlyse ny budgivning eller bestemme hvilken av budgiverne som skal få tilslaget.
9. Budgiver som byr for andres regning er solidarisk ansvarlig for betaling av kjøpet, således at auksjonæren kan holde seg til budgiver og tredjemann for oppfyllelse.
10. Alle bud avgis i norske kroner og betraktes solgt til den som har høyeste bud. Ved flere like forhåndsbud gjelder det av auksjonæren først mottatte. Forhåndsbud reduseres til laveste hevning over nest høyeste bud. Eksempel: Utrop kr. 900,- og tre skriflige bud, kr. 1.000,-, kr. 1.200,- og kr. 1.800,-. Budgivningen vil da starte på kr. 1.400,- og bli solgt for dette om ikke tilstedeværende byr over.
11. Graderte mynter/sedler. Vi gir ingen garantier for ekthet eller merknader på mynter og sedler i slabs eller andre lukkede beholdere, gradert av en tredjepart, og heller ikke for anmerkninger som er skjult pga slabb, som f.eks. anhengsspor, filemerker o.l.
12. Prisene i denne katalogen er minstepriser og bud under disse vil ikke bli akseptert. I tillegg til salgssummen kommer 20 % salær. Salæret på medaljer til utlandet er 25 %. Mynter og sedler som har vært gyldig betalingsmiddel er fritatt for m.v.a. For andre objekter f.eks. medaljer tilkommer 25 % m.v.a. på salæret ved levering i Norge. Avgiftspliktige objekter er merket med * ved objektnummeret. All forsendelse skjer for mottagers egen regning og risiko. Alle forsendelser til land utenfor Norden sendes med DHL eller FedEx. (Minimumspris i Europa NOK 350,-).
13. Salg skjer mot kontant betaling, senest 7 dager etter auksjonen eller faktura er avsendt. Ved senere betaling påløper 1 % rente pr. påbegynt måned. Hvis betaling ikke er skjedd senest 30 dager etter at auksjonen er avholdt, uansett om faktura er mottatt, kan auksjonsobjektet selges for kjøpers regning og risiko. Auksjonæren bestemmer alene på hvilken måte slikt salg gjennomføres og uten videre meddelelse til den opprinnelige kjøper, som holdes ansvarlig for ethvert økonomisk tap, herunder tapt provisjon og redusert salgspris. Eventuelle omkostninger i forbindelse med innkasso og videresalg blir også belastet den opprinnelige kjøper.
14. Risikoen til kjøpet går over til kjøper ved klubbeslaget, dog går eiendommsretten ikke over til kjøper før kjøpesummen er betalt i sin helhet.
15. Hvis det til tross for dette reglement skulle reises innsigelser mot auksjonær eller innleverer, må slikt gjøres innen 14 dager etter at objektet er utlevert eller avsendt. Innsigelser kan ikke gjøres dersom objektet ikke er betalt innen 30 dager etter auksjonsdato. Det samme gjelder vedrørende objekters ekthet. Innsigelser vedrørende objekters kvalitetsangivelser aksepteres ikke, da de er gitt etter beste skjønn og budgiver selv har anledning til å gjøre seg opp en oppfatning før auksjonen.
16. Oslo vedtas som verneting for alle tvister som måtte utspringe fra denne auksjonen eller dette reglement.
17. Reglementet er tatt inn i våre kataloger og ved avgivelse av bud skriftlig, muntlig eller i auksjonslokalet ansees budgiver for å ha gjort seg kjent med og akseptert auksjonsreglementet.
18. Utbetaling foretas ca 4 uker etter auksjonen.
19. Ved vederlag i kontanter kan vi kun motta beløp opptil kr 39.999 per kunde, jf. Hvitvaskingsloven § 4 a.

TERMS OF THE AUCTION

1. The auction is open to the public and participation is voluntary. Unless otherwise stated there will be more than one consignor.
2. The auctioned items are sold in the condition as described and shown prior to the auction. Bidders have the opportunity to appraise and inspect the items before the auction. Consequently, complaints about the items will not be acknowledged. This restriction on complaints also applies to advance written and telephone bids.
3. The duty of the auctioneer is to show reasonable care in describing the objects. Every item is to be assumed genuine and authentic unless otherwise stated.
4. All bids are binding. Bidders must be of legal capacity, i.e. at least 18 years old.
5. Prebids must be delivered in writing to the auctioneer in due time before the auction. Telephone bidding is accepted on lots with starting price of more than NOK 2000,-. The client has to make preliminary arrangements with Oslo Myntgalleri at least 24 hours before the auction starts.
6. While the auction is to be conducted carefully, the auctioneer is not responsible for possible mistakes or misunderstandings on the part of the buyer.
7. The auctioneer alone may refuse to accept bids from a person unknown to him and/or bids given without reference to someone known to the auctioneer. Foreign customers and Live bidding users must register at least 24 hours prior to the auction.
8. The auctioneer alone has the authority to decide if persons may participate in the auction. He may also withdraw, rearrange or divide items. In the case of disagreement during the auction, the auctioneer may restart bidding or may decide which of the bids to be accepted.
9. Agents bidding on behalf of others are completely responsible for payment of a bid. Of that reason the auctioneer can hold both the bidder and third part principals responsible for payment.
10. All bids are given in Norwegian kroner and sold to the highest bidder. In case of identical bids, the first received written bid takes priority. A prebid is reduced to the first step above the second highest bid. For example: Starting price 900,- and three prebids, kr. 1.000,-, kr. 1.200,- and kr. 1.800,-. The bidding will start at kr. 1.400,- and this will be the hammer price unless the room is bidding against.
11. Graded coins/banknotes. We do not give any warranty for the authenticity or defects on graded coins in slabs or other plastic holders from grading companies. Damages from traces of mounting or filing etc that are covered by the plastic container will not be accepted as reasons for complains from the buyer.
12. The prices in the catalogue are minimum prices and bids below will not be accepted. A fee of 20 % is added to the hammer price of each item. Medals will have a fee of 25 % added. Coins and banknotes that is or has been legal tender are exempted from VAT. On other items f.i. medals 25 % VAT is added on the fee when delivered in Norway. Lots that are subjected to VAT is marked with * by the lot number. If the purchased lots are to be sent, the buyer must pay postage, insurance, customs clearance and kr. 50,- in handling fee. All items are sent on the buyers expense and risk. Items sendt to countries outside Norden will be shipped with DHL or FedEx. (Minimum price Europe NOK 350)
13. The sale is completed by the payment of cash, at the latest 14 days after the auction or the invoice has been sent. In the case of later payment 1% interest is charged pr. started month. If payment has not been received 30 days after the auction, whether or not an invoice has been received, the items may be sold at the buyers cost and risk. The auctioneer alone decides how such a sale is to be carried out. This sale may take place without further notice to the original buyer who will be held responsible for any economic loss due to lost commission or reduced sales price.
14. The risk of the items passes over to the buyer on acceptance of the bid. However property rights do not pass over before paid in full.
15. If in spite of these regulations objections are raised about the auctioneer and/or the consignor, this must be raised within 7 days after the item has been delivered or sent. Objections can not be raised if the items are not paid within 30 days after the auction. This also applies regarding the authenticity of the items. Complaints about the quality given on the items will not be accepted as these are based on the exercise of best judgement and each buyer has had the opportunity to make their own desicision.
16. Oslo is accepted as the venue for settlement of all disputes that may arise from the auction or these regulations.
17. These regulations are incorporated into our catalogues and all bidders are assumed to have read and accepted these regulations.
18. Payments made about 4 weeks after the auction.
19 Payment in cash can not exceed NOK 39.999,- pr. customer ref. laundry § 4 a.

KONGSBERG SKILLINGEN 1771
av Bjørn Kristian Wang

1771 skillinger er de vanligste myntene preget i Skandinavia før overgangen til krone og øre systemet i 1874. Over 54 millioner eksemplarer ble pregert i København, Altona og Kongsberg. Av disse ble bare 4,3 % eller 2.326.032 mynter preget på Kongsberg fra 1782 til høsten 1786.

De fleste blankettene til disse myntene ble laget fra svenske plåtmynter som ble rullet til den korrekte tykkelse. Resultatet ble at mange av myntene idag har store eller mindre blankettfeil. Noen få mynter viser svensk underpreg.

Det ble laget 54 stempelpar til produksjonen. Idag er disse kjent i minst 87 forskjellige kombinasjoner. Mange av variantene er sjeldne og det er bare kjent ca. 1000 mynter samlet på samlerhender. Noen samlere forsøker å samle alle variantene.

Det er to hovedtyper med forskjellig stil på bokstavene på reversen. Myntene preget i 1782 har en spesiell tekst med stiliserte bokstaver særlig på bokstaven K. Denne stilen ble brukt tidligere på 8 skillinger i 1730 årene. Det er bare kjent ca 40 mynter med denne stilen delt på to forskjellige varianter. Mynter preget i perioden 1784-1786 har en antikva stil i bokstavene.

969 Overijssel, dukaton 1734 KM.80 01 1 600

Denne mynten stammer fra vraket av den nederlandske båten «Vliegenhart». Hun forliste i den engelske kanal i 1735 underveis til Batavia etter å ha kjørt i en sandbanke etter et resultat av kraftig vind, springflo og dårlig sjømannsskap. Vraket ble funnet i 1981 og de første myntene dukket opp i 1983. Det ble funnet tre store kister som bl.a. inneholdt mexikanske cobs samt nederlandske gulldukater. I tillegg ble det funnet små esker inneholdende usirkulerte nederlandske dukatoner som denne. Disse var ulovlige å føre ut fra landet og må oppfattes som smuglergods på den tiden.

HN Italy 2680 SNG ANS 548 SNG Cop. 1241 var. 1+ 1 000

Scholars believe that this issue was struck by the Lucani during the time of Pyrrhos, and it was struck on the reduced standard prevalent at Tarentum. The location of the mint remains uncertain, but Metapontum and Tarentum are mentioned as two possible candidates. The grain ear on the reverse is the key symbol of Metapontum and Robinson argues that the mint most likely was located there. However, Johnston notes that Athena on the obverse is almost identical to the style used on coins in Tarentum, and she argues that the coin should be viewed as an imitative issue merely combining key types from both cities.

Kleopatra Thea was the daughter of Ptolemy VI of Egypt. Between 150 and 126 BC she was married three times with different rulers of the Seleukid Empire; Alexander I Balas, Demetrios II Nikator and Antiochos VII Sidetes. The first two died in battle while Demetrios was likely killed on Kleopatras own orders. She ruled the empire alone from 125 until 121 BC when she elevated her second son, Antiochos VIII Gryphos, as co-ruler. This was probably a tactical move to legitimize her own power. As Gryphos grew up he became hard to control and she finally made a plot on his life, offering him a glass of poisoned wine. The plan backfired as Gryphos got suspicious of her unusual behavior and he forced her to drink her own poison that eventually killed her.

The much celebrated shekel of Tyre was the main silver coin for the powerful maritime city in Phoenicia. The coin is the most likely candidate for the "30 pieces of silver" paid to Judas Iscariot to betray Jesus Christ. The coin was used to pay the temple tax in Jerusalem and was prized because of the high silver content of 94 %. The piece offered here is of considerable interest as it was minted during the life of Jesus himself.

This remarkable gold aureus celebrates the establishment of the Second Triumvirate in 43 BC formally called the Triumvirate for Organizing the Republic. The political alliance divided power between the Roman Republic's most powerful men, Octavian, Marcus Antonius and Lepidus. The alliance was an official and legal institution granting the three men full legal sanction, even outranking the consuls. Their only limit was the five-year term determined by law. On the coin you can read; III VIR R P C, abbreviating tresviri rei publicae constituendae "One of Three Men for the Regulation of the Republic". The intention with the Triumvirate was to re-establish control of the Republic that was thrown into disarray after the assassination of Julius Caesar in 44 BC. The three men divided the provinces between them and managed to bring down Caesar's assassins and conspirators, including the chief conspirators Brutus and Cassius, who had fled Rome after the plot and taken control of the eastern provinces. The Second Triumvirate was not a stable alliance and was brought to an end by internal greed and jealousy. Octavian managed to defeat his rivals and emerged as the undisputed ruler of Rome, becoming the first Augustus in January 27 BC.

The triumphal arch depicted on this coin is probably Arcus Drusi that was erected to commemorate Drusus' military victories in Germany. The arch was erected by the Senate shortly after Drusus' death in AD 9, likely after instructions from Augustus. The location of the arch is still debated, and the structure is believed to be lost. The arch right in front of Porta S. Sebastiano on the Appian way has earlier been attributed to Drusus, but scholars have found no evidence for this connection. Historical sources place the real arch closer to the Baths of Caracalla and no traces of this has ever been found. The arch in front of Porta S. Sebastiano was originally flanked by two smaller arches on each side and decorated with marble panels and columns of Numidian marble. Only the central arch is still standing where the brick core, two columns of Numidian marble and traces of the triangular pediment remains. The arch was likely transformed already during the reign of Caracalla when he ordered the arch to be used as a base for the aqueduct Aqua Antoniniana which was constructed in order to supply his grandiose bath complex on the Aventine Hill. Further changes were done during the reign of Honorius when the arch was incorporated into a defensive wall around the city. In medieval times, the arch was used as base for a defensive tower and a few brick layers from this construction remains on top of the arch today.

This reverse type celebrates the success of Vespasian and Titus quelling the First Jewish Revolt in AD 73. The Jews put up a hard fight against the romans and the city of Jerusalem fell after five months of siege. The future emperor Titus led the attack on the city and managed to enter when a section of the wall collapsed after being undermined or damaged. Titus let the soldiers sack and ravage the city and brought the treasures back to Rome. A scene from the sack of Jerusalem is portrayed and still visible on the triumphal arch of Titus in the Forum Romanum. The fall of Jerusalem is often marked as the end of the Jewish revolt, but the highly fortified city of Masada was not captured until AD 73. The reverse of this celebrated denarius shows a personification of Judea seated and mourning under a trophy of captured armour.

This magnificent type celebrates Domitian's military exploits in Germany against the Chatti in AD 83. Unlike Vespasian and Titus, Domitian was not a military man and had no experience from the army. Vespasian had kept him in the background during his reign and the task of quelling the Jewish revolt in AD 73 was given to the elder brother Titus. However, when Domitian himself ascended the throne in AD 81 he considered himself a military commander and constantly sent messages to the generals in the field with advices and recommendations, likely to great annoyance for the generals. In hope of winning some experience and credibility with the army, he embarked on a successful campaign to Germany in AD 83 to fight the Chatti. Ancient authors called it a "mock triumph" and a show giving no real results. After the "success" Domitian awarded himself with the boastful title Germanicus and celebrated an elaborate triumph back in Rome. However, trouble was about to build up for Domitian and in AD 85 the Dacians crossed the Danube bringing a serious challenge for the northern frontier. Despite a decisive victory at Tapae four years later the long war had worn down the armies, and Domitian was forced to conclude a truce with King Decabalus of Dacia. The truce was reckoned as a cowardly move by many romans and completely broke with the roman tradition, severely damaging the emperor's reputation. More problems were heading in Domitian's direction as the Samatians attacked the norther frontier in AD 92 and started a new conflict that was not to be solved during his reign. Some real stability was not fully achieved before the reign of Trajan and his successful campaigns against Dacia in AD 101-106. Despite his lack of military experience and meager results in military campaigns, Domitian earned the respect of the Army by raising their wages.

Ex Künker, Auction 277, lot 133

This magnificent coin celebrates the re-installation of Gaius Julius Sohaemus as king of Armenia. Sohaemus was crowned king of Armenia by Antoninus Pius in AD 144 and led a pro-Roman regime. After the death of Pius in AD 161, the Parthians led by Vologases IV seized the opportunity and invaded Armenia, driving king Sohaemus into exile. Back in Rome the insult did not go unnoticed and Marcus Aurelius sent his co-emperor Lucius Verus on a counter-offensive into Armenia and Parthia. Verus set up headquarter in Antiochia and sent the able general Marcus Statius Priscus to Armenia in AD 163 where he succeeded to drive out the Parthians, and Sohaemus was restored to the crown. The general Avidius Cassius marched into Mesopotamia and managed to seize the Parthian capital of Ktesiphon. Initially, the campaign was a great success for the Rome, but the plague they brought back from Parthia would soon ravage the empire and its people. The epidemic, believed to be smallpox or measles, decimated the armies and made the borders of the empires vulnerable for attacks. From AD 167, Marcus Aurelius personally commanded his army in a defensive mission on the Danube frontier and partially succeeded to drive back the Germanic tribes attacking the borders. Verus had succumbed to a disease in AD 169 and Aurelius died in AD 180. The plague may have been the cause of death for both emperors.

RIC 264c RSC 287 1+/01 1 400
The antoninianus was introduced by Caracalla in AD 215 and valued as two denarii, even if the silver content was only equal to 1,5 denarii. The antoninianus is slightly larger than a denarius and the radiate crown indicates a double denomination. The antoninianus was not an immidiate success but would later replace the denarius as the principal silver coin of Rome.

RIC 90 (Decius) RSC 1189 S.9475 01 1 000

This coin belongs to a remarkable series issued under Trajan Decius honoring the best imperial Divi. A total of 11 Divi are honoured in the serius that suprisingly excludes Julius Caesar, Claudius, Lucius Verus and Pertinax. The presence of Commodus and Severus Alexander is interesting as the first was a highly controversial emperor and the latter was never deified.
